1. What is the policy about?

Assessment is a fundamental process in schools and is monitored in order that the best possible support and opportunity is provided for pupils. Effective assessment allows them to receive feedback on their learning, to know how to improve and allows staff to plan lessons effectively based on the needs of the pupils.

There are different types of assessment; formative assessment is the ongoing formal and informal assessment carried out lesson by lesson, and topic by topic. This kind of assessment allows for focused work and activities based on the current abilities of a pupils allowing also for stretch and challenge. Summative assessments are formal assessments of progress and allow for formal identification of achievement.

This policy sets out how we undertake assessment across Catch22 at Secondary (AP) level. It will

- Provide clear guidelines on our approach to formative and summative assessment
- Establish a consistent and coherent approach to recording summative assessment outcomes and reporting to parents
- Clearly set out how and when assessment practice will be monitored and evaluated

2. Who does this policy apply to?

This policy is for all staff, parents, carers and pupils. It is also for governing bodies, LA and other commissioning bodies.

- The headteacher is responsible for distributing the policy and monitoring its use and effectiveness.
- Staff are responsible for implementing this policy
- The Local Governing Body will hold leaders to account in the implementation of this policy.
- The Trust will lead in monitoring the application of this policy

3. Policy requirements

The Secondary National Curriculum sets out the content to be covered and we plan our teaching around these objectives, ensuring skills and knowledge are understood and then built on over time. We also revisit objectives to ensure that they are fully understood and to support moving them to long term memory.

We review learning through our marking and formative assessments, and plan our future sessions based on this.

3.1 How formative assessments are made (assessment for learning)

- By observations of pupils at work and on task
- By interaction with pupils in completing activities
- Through pre-planned questioning/discussion with pupils
- Through photographing / audio taping learning in progress
- Through the examination of pupil's written learning in exercise books
- When hearing pupils read aloud
- Weekly low stakes mini tests such as times tables & spelling

3.2 Baseline assessments

Our school takes pupils in KS3 and 4, and upon entry will sit baseline assessments. This final benchmark will be aggregated around some or all of the following

Two weeks of engaging in lessons attempting a range of tasks and activities, with a variety of approaches and using the classwork produced as a result

An end of topic test based on these two weeks of learning

Previous relevant exam papers (KS4) (full or partial)

This data is collected and a baseline grade is entered into SIMS for that subject. From this a minimum target grade is determined for the end of KS4, using the expected rate of progress as being two steps a year.

At KS3 we use a system called IDEAS, which grades pupils on their learning skills, allowing us to focus on developing the ability of a pupils to progress from learning knowledge to using and applying knowledge and is based on Blooms taxonomy. Appendix 1 has the definitions of this, along with how these are recorded in SIMS

At KS4 we use exam board grades for the qualification being studied- (1-9 GCSE, or E1-3, FS 1-2)

3.2 Half termly data capture

Each half term, there is an update into SIMS, which is graded only to monitor progression. This data is shared with parents and in termly reports.

From the half term data drop, staff analyse the data and celebrate progress and put into place interventions to support pupils to meet their targets.

3.3 Summative assessments (assessment of learning)

In addition to formative assessments, some summative assessments are also used.

Baseline

Upon starting with us, pupils will sit several summative assessments as detailed below;

- Reading age: YARC
- Accelerated reader will be repeated 3 times per year
- Mental & emotional wellbeing: Boxall is being explored

Internal

Formal testing takes the form of end of topic tests, end of year tests, mock exams every half-term, and formal mocks in preparation for the actual exams.

External

Pupils from years 9 to 11 will sit external exams as appropriate for them. Our year 9 pupils will only sit entry level exams, and do not start GCSE courses until year 10.

Years 10 and 11 may sit functional skills exams and GCSEs depending on ability.

3.5 Target setting and tracking

Pupil's KS2 data is used to provide an aspiration target for KS4 outcomes. Whilst acknowledging that our pupils have faced additional challenges in their learning since this time, our staff are mindful of this potential. We also use our own baseline, based on where each pupils is 'at' when they start with us to set their minimum target grades, expecting the same rates of progression. Staff and pupils will be aware of these grades to guide them in their learning journeys.

3.6 Marking

Our assessment policy is closely linked to our marking policy, which sets out our ethos around marking and also the requirements for marking according to clear outcomes. This enables us to give clear feedback to pupils to help them to understand how to improve to ensure they meet the learning intentions of a session. The regular feedback within a lesson and as part of book marking is focussed around providing feedback which will support pupils to become successful learners.

3.7 Reporting procedures

Information goes onto the SIMS system, and is shared with the CLL and SLT. Exam test results are reported to the relevant exams board.

Catch22 is committed to always: avoiding the potential for unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation; advancing equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not; and, foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.

An Equality Impact Assessment (EIA) is a tool for identifying whether or not strategies, projects, services, guidance, practices or policies have an adverse or positive impact on a particular group of people or equality group. Whilst currently only public bodies are legally required to complete EIA's under the Equality Act 2010, Catch22 has adopted the process in line with its commitment to continually improve our equality performance.

Policy owners are required to complete or review the assessment indicating whether the policy has a positive, neutral or negative impact for people who it applies to and who share one or more of the 9 protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010.
